asts Witness Game At Eclipse

Get interested in baseball, even if the Colonels did lose the two first games.

all right.

The victory in the inaugural engagement at Eclipse Park in Louisville last Wednesday afternoon, was won by the Minneapolis club over the Colonels.
This was a great disappointment to the fans in Cloverport, but as Mr. Emeil Nolte said "It sounds natural".

Little Dope On Baseball.

The Leagues you will be most interested in are as follows:

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

Minneapolis--Louisville.
St. Paul--Indianapolis.
Kansas City--Columbus.
Milwaukee--Toledo.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Chicago--Cincinnati.
Pittsburgh--St. Louis.
Philadelphia--Boston.
New York--Brooklyn.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

St. Louis--Chicago.
Detroit--Cleveland.
Washington--Philadelphia.
Boston--New York.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE.

Nashville--Memphis.
Mobile--New Orleans.
Chattanooga--Atlanta.
Montgomery--Birmingham.

You notice there are eight teams to each league and Louisville belongs to the American Association. All of these leagues belong under one government,
that is, all leagues observe certain regulations in regard to each other.

Connie Mack And His Team.

Mack Connie, manager of the Athletics, writes in The Saturday Evening
Post, how to make a winning ball team.
He says, "There's no use wasting time with a player who isn't ambitious to rise in his profession. Excesses of any kind will ruin the cleverest ballplayer.
And by excesses I don't mean drinking and moral uncleanness only, I include eating to excess." All of his men promised not to take a drink and after a fourth game, one had a bad cold and seemed in for a case of grippe. He came to him that evening and said: "Connie, I'm half sick. I need something to brace me up or I may be in bed tomorrow. If you don't mind, I want to take a drink." "All right," Mr. Connie told him. "Do as you like--but I would rather die than take a drink!"
"That settles it," said the player,
"no drink for me!"

Mr. Mack writes, "Next day I put him in the game. He got on first, stole second at a critical moment and helped turn the tide of victory in our favor. And he did it without a drink!"

Rube Waddell.

Mr. Mack writes interestingly of
